Choose coverage to fit your needs

Your employer is giving you the option to enroll in Short Term Disability Income Insurance, which means that if a disabling illness or injury prevents you from working, you'll still be able to replace a portion of your income.

When you become disabled, you must complete a waiting period before benefits are payable. (Learn more in the "Before benefit payments begin" section below). When they begin, here's how much you'll receive:

Coverage Amount
60%
of your weekly earnings

Coverage Amount
Coverage Minimum	$25 per week
Coverage Maximum	$1,200 per week

Waiting period

How long benefit payments last

Waiting period

- The benefit waiting period for a disability caused by an accidental injury is 7 days
- The benefit waiting period for a disability caused by a sickness is 7 days

Short Term Disability Income Insurance is intended to replace income for a disability that lasts just a few weeks. The maximum amount of time that you're able to receive Short Term Disability benefit payments is 25 weeks.

Evidence of Insurability (health questions)

You do not need to provide evidence of insurability to be covered.

How much does it cost?

Rates shown are guaranteed until: 7/1/2024 Your premiums are deducted on a post-tax basis.

Use the chart below to find your monthly cost, based on the amount of coverage you'd like to elect. You can elect up to 60% of your basic weekly earnings. (Your "basic weekly earnings" are the weekly salary or wage you receive from your employer, not including commissions, bonuses, overtime pay, any other extra compensation, or

- Overtime pay

Exclusions and limitations

We won't pay benefits if your disability is caused by, contributed to by, or results from any of the following:

- Subject to the applicable law in the state where the Policy is delivered or issued for delivery, commission or attempt to commit a felony or illegal activity.
- Engaging in any illegal occupation, work or employment.
- Operating a motorized vehicle while under the influence of alcohol as evidenced by a blood alcohol level at or in excess of the state legal intoxication limit as defined by the state law where the disability occurs.

- Intentionally self-inflicted harm.
- Attempted suicide, regardless of mental capacity.
- Participation in a war, declared or undeclared, or any act of war. An act of war is military activity by one or more national governments and does not include terrorist acts, other random acts of violence not perpetrated by you, or civil war or community faction.
- Active duty as a member of the armed forces of any nation. However, we will refund, upon written notice of such service, any Premium which has been accepted for any period not covered as a result of this exclusion.
- Active participation in a riot, insurrection or terrorist activity, but not including civil commotion, disorder, injury as an innocent bystander, or injury because of self-defense.
- Subject to the applicable law in the state where the Policy is delivered or issued for delivery, voluntary intake of any narcotic or other controlled substance, unless the narcotic or controlled substance is taken under the direction of and as directed by a doctor.
- Voluntary intake of poison, drugs or fumes, unless a direct result of an occupational accident.
- Cosmetic surgery except when required for your appropriate care as a result of your injury or sickness; cosmetic surgery shall not include (1) reconstructive surgery when the surgery is incidental to or follows surgery resulting from trauma, infection or other diseases of the involved part, (2) reconstructive surgery because of congenital disease or anomaly resulting in a functional defect and (3) surgery necessitated by gender dysphoria.
- Traveling in any aircraft other than as a fare-paying passenger on a scheduled or charter flight operated by a scheduled airline.
- Traveling in any aircraft (or device) used for testing or an experimental purpose, used by or for any military authority, or used for travel beyond the earth's atmosphere.
- Hang-gliding, skydiving, parachuting, ultralight, soaring, ballooning and parasailing.
- Participation in recreational motor sports events, racing, speed or endurance contest (auto, truck, cycle or boat), rock or mountain climbing, skin or scuba diving, or bungee jumping.
- Participation in any sport for wage, compensation or profit.

If your employer's plan covers only non-occupational injuries, then the following exclusion also applies:

- Occupational sickness or injury

We will not pay a benefit for any period of Disability during which you are incarcerated.

Pre-existing conditions: We won't pay benefits if your disability is due to a pre-existing condition, and you became disabled during the first 12 months following the effective date of your coverage. A pre-existing condition is any condition for which you have done any of the following at any time during the 3 months just prior to your effective date of coverage, whether or not that condition is diagnosed, undiagnosed or misdiagnosed:

- Received medical treatment or consultation.
- Taken or were prescribed drugs or medicine.
- Received care or services, including diagnostic measures.

Pre-existing condition limitation does not apply to employees currently enrolled in coverage.

Your benefits may be reduced by other income you are eligible to receive while disabled.

*Limitations and exclusions will vary by state and by your employer's benefit plan.

The length of the pre-existing condition "limitation" period and "look-back" period may vary for your employer's plan. Contact your employer for details.

- Sickness or accidental injury for which you have or had a right to payment under a workers' compensation or similar law. This includes payment you would have been entitled to receive if the Policyholder had not declined to provide workers' compensation insurance as allowed by the Policyholder's state of domicile.
- Sickness or accidental injury arising out of or in the course of work for pay, profit or gain.

Benefits are not payable for the portion of any period of Disability that you are confined in a penal or correctional institution as a result of conviction for a criminal or other public offense.

Benefits are not payable if your disability is due to a pre-existing condition, and you became disabled during the first 12 months your coverage is in effect. A pre-existing condition is a sickness or accidental injury for which, during the 3 months immediately before the effective date of your coverage or increased amount of coverage, you did one or more of the following: received medical treatment, care, services or advice; or took prescribed drugs; or had medications prescribed. This limitation does not apply to employees currently enrolled in coverage.

Even though you may experience multiple reasons for your disability, only one Disability benefit is payable at any given time.

Your benefits will be reduced by other income you are eligible to receive while disabled. These include but aren't limited to:

- Income received from any form of employment
- Unemployment benefits and any type of income replacement provided by your employer
- Workers' Compensation benefits or benefits from similar programs
- Judgments or settlements you receive related to disability
- Disability or retirement payments under Social Security or other federal and state plans
- Disability income payments under automobile liability insurance benefits
- Disability income payments payable under any other group insurance policy and certain retirement payments provided under your employer's retirement plan

*Limitations and exclusions will vary by state and by your employer's benefit plan.
